ART. 2

Assessment methods of student's initial preparation

On-line interview

The admission test consists of an on-line individual interview aimed at assessing the adequacy of the candidate's general knowledge regarding the course's main topics (see art.3).

The Commission is appointed by the Degree Course Board and it is composed by three Professors.

The test will be preceded, for each candidate, by administrative validation of the curriculum requirements pointed out by art. 1 of this admission call.

The minimum score for admission to the course is: 18/30.

In case of failure, the candidate is allowed to apply for next test sessions.

ART. 3

Admission test topics

Basic knowledge about:

- Ancient civilizations of the Mediterranean
- Methods for historical and archaeological research
- Medieval and modern history

Basic computer skills and English skills will be verified during interview.

For foreign students only, the test will verify the knowledge of basic Italian language. If necessary, the students shall attend a training activity named 'further linguistic knowledge' of Italian language.

There are no additional training obligations at the time of access.

ART.4

Positions available to non-EU citizens living abroad: n. 15 positions

Within the limit of the quota reserved for them during the programming, access is granted to foreign students (non-EU students who have submitted a pre-enrolment application according to the procedures and deadlines indicated by Ministero dell'Università e della Ricerca and Ministero degli Affari Esteri) in possession of the required qualification.

Further information to study in Italy: Calendar for enrolment procedures a.y. 2024/2025 in Italian universities (<https://www.universitaly.it/studenti-stranieri>).

International students can take part to the 2024/2025 edition of the 'Unisalento4Talents' programme.

All information and the application form can be found at the following link:

<https://international.unisalento.it/en/admission/scholarships-grants/unisalento4talents>

The allowances included will be given out as scholarship or services, depending on the final decision of the Governance. At least one scholarship will be available for each course offered within the 2024/2025 edition of the "Unisalento4Talents" programme.

The scholarships will be awarded as a ranking based on the results of the admission interview (minimum score 18 - maximum score 30).

ART. 5

Students with disabilities and diagnosis of SLD

According to Law 104/1992, modified by Law 17/1999, students with disabilities and diagnosis of SLD will be granted adequate support. They are invited to contact the appointed office (Disability Integration Office) by sending an email to centro.sostegno@unisalento.it to arrange the interview's details.
